Ground breaking ceremonies for the new building were held early in February. Mayor Sonneveldt and college officials, as well as faculty, staff and students were present.

"Snowbreaking"
The Student Council is a workable and competent representative government. It has brought about closer cooperation between the administration, faculty, and student body, maintained high academic standards, and furthered cultural and social activities.

This year the Council sponsored a Christmas dance, Winter formal, Bud Chamberlain Memorial Fund drive, Spring formal, and a Spring picnic.
This year Students' Life was awarded as the outstanding newspaper of two year colleges in Michigan by the Michigan Collegiate Press Association.

Issued every three weeks, the publication sought to capture events of interest to students and present them within the standards of ethical journalism.

Congressman Ford Addresses Students

Representative Gerald R. Ford addressed the student body recently, giving his eighteenth annual congressional report. Ford, house minority leader since January 1964 was re-elected to serve his tenth term for the Fifth District.

On the selective service, Ford commented, "A peace time law is not adequate. One of the first orders of business that the Congress should have in 1967 is the examination of a new selective service act." Ford advocates more rigid requirements for students to remain deferred.

"Democracy is not a perfect form of government, but there is none better," said Ford, quoting Winston Churchill. "The beauty of the strength of America is its many nationalities. Ford believes the people should be allowed to vote on the issue of prayers in public schools. Ford voted "yes" on lowering the voting age to 18. Ford said, "Those who are 18 have the big... in the future of the... of any age group." Will has supplied Roger Horton, a Marketing and Sales major from South Haven, was Editor. Assistant editors were Kathy Flietsma and Donald Strock. Tom Chubinski was the photographer and Arnold Donins the cartoonist.

The staff also included; Harry Brooks, Judy Fongers, Kathy Kalisz, Pat Kane, Emma Nweze and Jan Stauss. Faculty advisor to "Students' Life" was Thomas Brown.
There's nothing dreary or humdrum about studies in the Nancy Taylor Course. As a matter of fact, the chain of more than 300 business schools offering the Nancy Taylor training puts the emphasis on the fact that they are not only secretarial, but finishing schools. And the "Finishing" includes an in-depth study of each student — her personality, her manners, her voice, her top-to-toe physical appearance. The complete course includes every facet of grooming conceivable and the future career girl emerges on graduation with her best potentials emphasized. Not by any means a "snap course," the Nancy Taylor Classroom demands hard work, both in a background of learning business skills and in grooming and personality development.

Alpha Iota is an International Honorary Business Sorority with chapters located in leading business schools and colleges throughout the United States and Canada with a membership of well over 7,000. "Its aim is to make of us, everyone, better women, that we may add our mite to general happiness and well-being of the community in which we live. Alpha Iota sponsors at least one international charity project each year. One such project is the Institute of Orthopedics in Wichita, Kansas. In addition to this each chapter does much service work at the local level.

This, combined with all the social activities and money making projects, provides a bond between these young women of above average scholastic ability.

The D.C. Pep Band, in its third season, showed steady growth and development, and made a considerable contribution to the college spirit through the music it provided at college activities. The band played at all home basketball games and also provided music for assemblies, picnics, and several other on-campus functions. Mr. C. Dexter Rohm Sr. is the band's director.
The Davenport College Chorus, which was organized in 1965, has been a very active organization during the past year. They have practiced every Monday night under the direction of Mr. C. Dexter Rohm Sr. They chorus has sung at assemblies and programs for the College and at Commencement. Miss Ellen Meengs is the accompanist for the chorus.

The Association of Women Students is a national organization of which Davenport College of Business has recently become a member. The A.W.S. is governed by a board of elected representatives: the president, the secretary, representatives from the dormitories, the sororities, the Future Secretaries of America (FSA), the commuting students, one faculty representative, Mrs. Lindsey, and the Dean of Women, Mrs. Voss.

The A.W.S. published The Code of Living, listing the aims and rules of Davenport College. The Board sets up a system of dormitory regulations and punishments. Activities sponsored by the Board include the Big Sister-Little Sister Program; social events following the home basketball games; the Art of Living Series, the Door Decorating Contest, the tutoring program; and the fall meeting and Spring Picnic. This year, representatives of the A.W.S. Board attended the State Convention at Ferris State College.
Art of Living Series
The Art of Living Series of lectures and programs are planned and designed to help the college woman prepare herself for the business world. Davenport College is proud to note that colleges countrywide have recognized and adopted programs similar to our original Art of Living Series.

Topics include:

COLLEGE LIFE
PROTECTING YOURSELF
ETIQUETTE IN BUSINESS
CIVIL DEFENSE AND YOU
MARRIAGE AND YOU
MONEY ON YOUR MIND
NUTRITION IN FOODS
MANNERS ON THE TELEPHONE
SEX AND THE SINGLE GIRL

This program is sponsored by the board of the Association of Women Students.
